

Questions to ask yourself:
What should I do after my pet has died?

www.PetAngelMemorialCenter.com

The following questions are designed to help you record your feelings in advance so you have fewer decisions to make when facing the death of your beloved pet. It is our hope that this worksheet will make it easier on you and your family during a very difficult time.

Do I want the cremains returned to me?

(What will I do with them? Do I want to scatter the cremains in a special place? Do I want a special urn?)

- Yes, I want a private cremation (my pet alone) with the cremains returned to me in a dignified Remembrance Package* from Pet Angel Memorial Center®.
- No, I want a private cremation (my pet alone) but I prefer to have Pet Angel Memorial Center® respectfully scatter the cremains.
- No, I want a communal (group) cremation (my pet with several other pets) with Pet Angel Memorial Center® to scatter the cremains.

Do I want personal handling for my beloved pet or memorial products in its memory?

- Do I want my pet picked up immediately from the Veterinary Hospital?
- Do I want my pet's paw print or fur clipping for a keepsake?
- Do I want other types of memorial items such as a designer urn, marker, or jewelry?
- Do I want personalized services such as grief support, family visitation, memorial service, or celebration of life service?
